Topic we can talk about:

1. Now he is going all in on newcomers, so we can ask questions around that.

2. We can ask questions about their content creation because he did lots of work around that, and also had a degree in media production, and how he came into immigration, and what's the relation between those two.

3. He is trying to build an appreciation wall for The Newcomers. Where he allows their viewers to submit appreciation.

Notes

- She prefers a clean, simple, and intentional style, not overly edited or packed with flashy graphics.
- Story talks don't need much graphics, but the hook/ video intro is important
- She likes zoom-in and zoom-out camera effects.
- She likes text On-screen text to highlight key phrases or timestamps
- The Hook is important to me to try to do well
